

KŌKUA CONNECTIONS

LEARNING TO LIVE ALOHA

with YMCA of Honolulu Camp Erdman
69-385 Farrington Hwy, Waialua, HI 96791

SAT, NOV 15 – SUN, NOV 16, 2025
$5/PERSON

Living aloha is a journey, not a destination. It's about cultivating a mindset that embraces compassion and understanding. With the YMCA of Honolulu Camp Erdman, we will be doing a service-learning work project, camp activities, and overnight stay.

Registration is required for all attendees so we can plan accordingly. Please ensure each participant is signed up individually. Activities appropriate for:

- All ages can participate.
- We will learn and participate in Camp Erdman's efforts to help preserve shoreline conservation area. We will be weeding and moving plants.
- We will arrive on Saturday morning, spend the day working, participate in camp activities (Alpine Tower, archery, hiking, night swim, campfire, etc).
- Dinner on Saturday and breakfast on Sunday will be provided by the team at Camp Erdman. Please plan to bring your own lunch on Saturday.
- Cabins for the overnight stay (Saturday to Sunday) will be shared family cabins that can fit up to 16 people.
- Registration fee of $5 per person will help offset the costs for the meals being provided.
